

Advanced Vocals

For Your Continued Development

A course for singers who are searching for assistance or input in continued vocal development not only in technique but in styling and exploring grooves within multiple genres of music.

Learn the tricks of the trade on how to develop emotion in your singing, start at developing a range of tone colors in your voice, explore different styles of music and search to release that true diva in you!

Guided by Soul and R&B sensation, Ms Lim Huimin, you'll definitely be positively encouraged to reach greater achievements with your vocal skills. Contact us today!

Lim Huimin

Huimin started performing at the age of 6 and undergo classical voice training at the age of 13. She has also presented Singapore at an international arts and music competition (Voice soloist) at the age of 15. At the age of 15, Huimin started conducting choir as a student. In addition, she has been featured on news paper as a young classical performer. Started pop, jazz and rock singing at the age of 17 and branched out doing song writing. She has also started performing as a part 'NANU' as one of their soloist in 2006, the only female a cappella group in Singapore in many events and recently at the ASIAN ROCK FEST. Currently, she is a vocal coach at Yamaha Music School, Choral Director for Secondary School Choirs.
